This is how it works.....

This type of equestrian-item consignment sale is held twice a year. All disciplines.
Raleigh, NC every fall and Greensboro, NC every spring.

This sale allows you to buy and sell your unwanted horse items, tack, saddles, show clothing, barn supplies- anything that has to do with riding and horses! Other animal things (dog show at the same time on fairgrounds in Raleigh), lawn-garden items welcomed. Carts & wagons. Vendor spaces, advertise in all shoppers' bags!

- * You DO NOT have to be present during the consignment sale to represent your items to sell- Equestrian Exchange sells them for you- arranged in discipline.
 - * Pre-registration required at www.EquestrianExchange.com
 - * You price and tag your own items (manila tags required)
 - * Make an inventory list of all items you are bringing to be sold with prices written
 - * Bring them to the sale on drop off day- allow time to check in your things
 - * Equestrian Exchange will sell your items for you
 - * Volunteers shop before consignors and consignors shop before public- refer to schedule on website. Sorters needed on last shopping day after sale over!
 - * Inform other equestrians so they will come buy your things- Tell everyone, post at barn!
 - * Pick up your unsold things on pick up day or donate if desire. Allow time with pick up.
 - * Checks (less the 25% commission- $ 6.00 per consignor fee) mailed 1 month after sale.
 - * It is very easy! A great way to sell your things and make money to apply to other horse and riding needs. If you know of a tack store going out of business, a barn closing or opening, a new rider that doesn't want to invest a lot of money in beginner items, a rider that has decided to retire from riding, a horse lover with talent for horsey crafts or hobbies, or anyone that loves equestrian things and likes to save money...This sale is for them! Free parking and admission. Clean out your barn, tack room-make some CASH!
